Official Papers.

OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

* Rajina, the 13th February 1941.

Third and Final Forecast of the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1940-41.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1938-39, the area under winter rice in Bengal has represented some 20·6 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the issue of the second forecast unfavourable weather conditions owing to prolonged drought further reduced the outturn in some districts.

Acres.—According to District Officers' estimates the total area under winter rice is 14,916,700 acres as compared with 16,095,900 (revised) acres of last year.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended it will be seen that ten districts report a crop varying from 72 to 95 per cent. and the rest below 70 per cent. of the normal. According to the above estimates the provincial outturn works out to 63 per cent. of the normal as against 88 per cent. of last year.

Accepting 63 per cent. as the provincial outturn, the gross yield of the crop, on the basis of a normal yield of 12½ maunds of clean rice (husked) per acre, is estimated at 4,315,200 tons this year as against 6,504,100 (revised) tons in last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

From—A. Frederick, Esq., M.I.FireE., Chief Officer, Fire Brigade, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Public Health and Local Self-Government (Municipal).

(Through C. E. S. Fairweather, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta)

I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the year ending 31st March 1940. The work of the department throughout the year has been normal.

Financial Statement.—The statement of receipts and expenditure and payments made by the municipalities within the jurisdiction of the Fire Brigade and Licensed Warehouse Act I of 1893 is given in Appendix I.

The cost of maintenance of the Fire Brigade is contributed by (a) the Calcutta Municipality, (b) the Howrah Municipality and (c) the Garden Reach Municipality at the rate of 83·5 per cent., 14 per cent., and 2·5 per cent., respectively.

Fees for licensed warehouses are charged under section 10 of the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, and are levied at 10 per cent. of the annual valuation of warehouses, subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,500 per warehouse per annum, and the income thus derived provides the 50 per cent. of the cost of the upkeep of the Fire Brigade under the Act.

Fires, etc.—The total number of calls to fires or supposed fires was 545, being an increase of 23 as compared with the previous year. The actual number of fires attended was 455 which shows an increase of 23 as compared with the previous year, and the number of fires classed as serious (i.e., over Rs. 20,000 damage per fire, see Appendix III) was 14, being a decrease of 8 as compared with the previous year.

Fire stations.—Appendix IV gives the number of times each fire station has been turned out in response to fire calls together with monthly statements.

Staff.—The strength of the Brigade during the year was 284 as detailed below:—

One Chief Officer, 1 Second Officer, 1 Chief Engineer, 5 Station Officers, 8 Engineers, 7 firemen, 1 Warehouse Inspector, 5 clerks, 1 store-keeper, 3 telephone operators, 2 carpenters, 2 lathe mechanics, 1 fitter, 1 blacksmith, 1 tinsmith, 10 Indian drivers, 1 head tindal, 30 tindals, 188 khafasies and 15 menial employees.

The conduct and discipline of the staff throughout the year have been exemplary.

I am pleased to record my appreciation of the most faithful and excellent services rendered by Chief Engineer F. A. Tucker, Station Officer W. Fraser, Engineer Holden, Warehouse Inspector Doran and Head Clerk K. C. Sen Gupta; specially Chief Engineer Tucker, who rendered conspicuous service in connection with the Air Raid Precautions and Head Clerk K. C. Sen Gupta, who gave valuable service in connection with construction of the new Fire Brigade Headquarters and was of great assistance in general administration.

Fatalities and accidents.—Appendix VI gives short reports of fires and special occurrences involving loss of life or serious accidents.

The number of lives lost at fires during the year under review is 13, being an increase of 5 as compared with the previous year.

I am glad to report that no serious accidents occurred during training recruits, or at drill.

In all cases, where necessary, first-aid was rendered by the Fire Brigade and the injured persons conveyed to hospital by motor ambulance.

Water-supply.—In Calcutta water for fire extinguishing is obtained from the unfiltered water-supply system maintained by the Corporation of Calcutta with pumping stations located on the banks of the river Hooghly at Mullick Ghat and Watgunge.

Fires in Cossipur-Chitpur and adjoining areas are extinguished with water supplied from ponds or tanks, many of which are replenished only by rainfall.

In Howrah the condition cannot be said as satisfactory, although there are some hydrants on the filtered water-supply for being used at fires.

Fire float.—The fire float (5,000 gallons per minute capacity) is stationed on the river opposite the Prinsep's Ghat. During the year under review it has responded to 3 calls as compared with 11 calls in the previous year.

Street fire alarms, telephones and electrical communications.—I am pleased to record my appreciation of the excellent service rendered by the Bengal Telephone Company.

Inspection Department.—The majority of theatres, cinemas and other places of public amusement, with few exceptions, have no serious fire risks and there were no serious fires during the year under review.

In connection with the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I of 1893, 6,469 inspections of warehouses have been made during the year. Four hundred and thirty-three applications and complaints have been attended to and disposed of. Eighty-six prosecutions were made under section 14 of Act I of 1893 which resulted in 74 persons being fined, the fines aggregating in all Rs. 488. Six persons were warned and discharged and 5 cases were withdrawn and one case was acquitted.

General.—The Calcutta Fire Brigade protects the City of Calcutta and the municipalities of Howrah and Garden Reach, and may attend fires outside the boundaries of the above, but not exceeding a radius of 12 miles from Fire Brigade Headquarters, provided appliances can be spared, and on payment of a prescribed fee. The total area protected is approximately 112 square miles, comprising a population of over 2,000,000 persons.

Fire Brigade Headquarters is still located in premises rented for that purpose. The construction of the permanent headquarters of the Fire Brigade has been commenced during the year and the station will be ready for occupation by the month of October next. My thanks are due to the Calcutta Corporation, Howrah Municipality and Garden Reach Municipality who financed the scheme.

On account of the emergency due to the War volunteers have been taken on as auxiliary firemen and drivers in order to assist the Fire Brigade for precaution against fires through air raids.

Five auxiliary fire stations have been opened with necessary equipments for the purpose who will work in conjunction with the regular Fire Brigade.

As this is my last Annual Report I beg to tender my thanks to the Commissioner and other officers of the Calcutta Police for their co-operation at all times.

Also, I beg to thank the Executive Staff of the Calcutta Corporation for their ready assistance given to this department.

Forwarded.

I endorse the remarks made by Mr. Frederick about his staff and I take this opportunity of recording my appreciation of the outstanding services rendered by Mr. Frederick himself. He has maintained the Fire Brigade in a high state of efficiency and I am greatly indebted to him for the manner in which he organised and trained the A. R. P. auxiliary fire service on the outbreak of War.

C. E. S. FAIRWEATHER,

Commissioner of Police.

The 25th September 1940.

NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 24th February 1941.

It is ordered by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal that with effect from the date of this publication in the Calcutta Gazette the following amendments be effected in Chapter XXVII and Appendix J, Appendices (Part I) of the Rules of the High Court, Original Side, 1914 (4th Edition):—

Chapter XXVII.

The present rules 3, 9, 12, 13, 21 and 22 be repealed and in lieu thereof the following rules be substituted:—

Rule 3. Every such sale shall be to the best purchaser that can be got for the same, provided the Registrar shall consider that a sufficient sum has been offered, or in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, provided the price to be specified under Section 35 of that Act has been reached, or the decree-holder consents in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified.

Rule 9. The notification shall specify the time and place of sale, and shall contain description and particulars of the property, together with a statement that it is to be sold by or with the approbation of the Registrar pursuant to a decree or order of the Court, and of the manner in which it is proposed to lot the same. Where the property, or any portion of it, is to be sold subject to an incumbrance, the nature and amount of such incumbrance shall, as far as practicable, be also stated. In suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the notification shall specify the extent of the property to be sold and the price thereof as calculated under the provisions of Section 35 of such Act.

Rule 12. Where a sale is ordered at the instance of a subsequent incumbrancer or of a mortgagor, or where a party having the carriage of the proceedings has obtained leave to bid, unless otherwise ordered, or unless dispensed with by the proper parties, a reserved price shall be fixed by the Registrar. The Registrar may also in any other case, in which it may be deemed necessary or desirable, fix a reserved price, provided that in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the reserved price shall be the price specified in accordance with Section 35 of that Act.

Rule 13. For the purpose of fixing a reserved price or a price to be specified under the provisions of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act the Registrar may, on notice to the parties, direct a valuation or a survey to be made of the property to be sold. The same shall be made by a surveyor or other competent person, to be appointed by the Registrar, who shall certify the result under signature, and shall deliver or transmit certificate to the Registrar under a sealed cover, with the words on the cover, "Private, and to be opened only by the Registrar". The Registrar may, where he shall think fit, require the certificate to be verified by an affidavit or affirmation of the valuer. In that case the certificate shall be referred to without being annexed to, or filed with the affidavit or affirmation, which shall be so prepared as not to disclose the contents of the certificate. On the reserved price or price to be so specified as aforesaid being fixed, the certificate shall be put up in a sealed cover and kept with the proceedings.

Rule 21. Where there is no bid, or where the highest bid is below the reserved price (if any) or be deemed insufficient by the Registrar or in cases governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 where the price specified has not been reached or the decree-holder has not consented in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified, the Registrar shall postpone the sale, and record the reason for such postponement in his note-book.

Provided that where the highest bid is below the reserved price and where for any reason to be recorded by him the Registrar is of opinion that the same should be accepted, he may accept it subject to confirmation by a Judge.

Rule 22. Where the highest bid is equal to or higher than the reserved price (if any), or is deemed sufficient by the Registrar or where, in sales held in pursuance of decrees governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, the price to be specified has been reached or the provisions of the proviso to Section 35 of the Act have been applied, the Registrar shall, subject to the provisions of rule 23, make an entry in the note-book to the following effect:—

"I declare A. B. to be the purchaser of the property comprised in lot for the sum of Rs. " adding in a case within the proviso to rule 21 the words "subject to confirmation by a Judge".

Appendix J.

For condition 2 to form No. 1, the following be substituted:—

2. The sale is subject to a reserved bidding/specified price which has been fixed by the Registrar.

8. If any difficulty arises in determining the amount payable as an instalment of deposit by an insurer under this Act, the matter shall be decided by the Central Government whose decision shall be final.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As a result of falling business and lapsing of policies, due to war conditions, those young proprietary insurance companies whose business is relatively small are finding it difficult to pay the fixed amounts of the periodical instalments of the deposits required by the Insurance Act, 1938, and are therefore in need of some relief. The object of this Bill is to reduce for the duration of the war and one year afterwards the instalments of deposits due from such insurers carrying on life insurance business only, subject to the provision of certain safeguards to prevent advantage being taken of the concession to incur increased expenditure or liabilities of an unjustifiable nature.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Insurance Act of 1938 in respect of (a) a considerable number of matters in regard to which amendment is necessary in order to remove flaws and administrative difficulties which have come to light during the eighteen months for which the Act has been in operation, and (b) some other matters in respect of which further provision is considered desirable.

2. Some of the more pressing amendments have already been dealt with in previous Amending Bills. The remainder are now included in this comprehensive Bill.

3. The principal amendments included in this Bill provide for (a) grant of permission to the public to inspect or get copies on payment of a fee of documents filed by insurers; (b) imposing on those types of business, which though classed as "Miscellaneous Insurance" are susceptible in some degree of actuarial valuation, actuarial requirements as similar as may be to those to which Life Insurance business is already subject; (c) extension of the time for the submission of valuation returns under section 15 in all cases to 9 months; (d) fixation of a time limit of 3 months within which appeals to Court must be made against the orders of the Superintendent of Insurance; (e) extension of the power to order a revaluation under section 22 to all valuations of insurers; (f) recovery of the expenses of investigations ordered under section 33 as arrears of land-revenue; (g) allowing the age of the insured to be proved at any time after the issue of a policy; (h) clarification of section 48 relating to the election of policy-holders' directors; (i) protection of the interests of the policy-holders concerned when an insurer or a provident society ceases to carry on insurance business on the dividing principle; (j) co-ordination of the provisions applicable to insurers and those applicable to provident societies; (k) extension of the principle of a guaranteed surrender value to whole-life policies also; (l) removal of a legal difficulty which prevents defining which of the particular transactions of an insurer are to be considered as transacted in British India or India, as the case may be; (m) extension of the power of granting reciprocal exemptions under section 116 to provident societies also; (n) an amendment of section 7 so as to allow the Reserve Bank to charge their normal commission on the sale of, or investment in, securities which they are required to sell or invest under that section on the request of an insurer.

4. The Bill also provides for an annual fee for renewal of registration of insurers and provident societies and for an increase of the fee charged for agents' licences. These provisions are necessary in order to increase the realisations under the Act so as to cover the present direct cost of administration.

5. In addition to the above points, several defects of a technical nature are also dealt with.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) rectifies an omission while the amendment in sub-clause (b) substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 3.—Sub-clause (a) removes doubts about the validity of policy-contracts entered into after the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in section 3(1) by certain insurers who failed to obtain a certification of registration even by the 10th May 1940. The object is to secure that the policy-holders do not suffer while the insurers can be dealt with, where necessary, under sub-sections (5B) and (5D) of section 3. Sub-clause (b) increases the registration fee for each class of business to Rs. 500 for new insurers, while sub-clauses (c), (d) and (e) supply provisions covering the consequences of failure to renew registration, including provisions for revival of registration in some cases and for the winding up of the insurers in others.

Clause 4.—The insertion of the new section provides for the annual registration of insurers on payment of a prescribed fee on a sliding scale, but not exceeding Rs. 1,000 for each class of business, and also for late applications for renewal.

Clause 5.—Sub-clause (a) substitutes a more apt expression and sub-clause (b) removes doubts as to what is a group policy.

Clause 6 substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 7.—The addition makes clear that the Reserve Bank of India is entitled to charge the normal commission on purchase and sale of securities made on the request of insurers.

Clause 8.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables the Central Government to provide for the keeping of a separate account of such sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance business as are capable of actuarial valuation, except where the Superintendent of Insurance considers the business is too small for that requirement. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) rectify minor verbal inaccuracies.

Clause 9.—The amendments in sub-clause (a) are consequential to sub-clause (a) of clause (8). Sub-clause (b) removes an ambiguity.

Clause 10.—The addition provides for the actuarial valuation of those sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance which are susceptible of such valuation and also for exemption where the business is too small to justify such a requirement.

Clause 11.—The amendments extend the time for submission of valuation returns by insurers.

Clause 12.—Sub-clause (a) supplies a drafting omission. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) extend the provisions of section 16 to the sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance for which provision is made by the amendment proposed to section 10(1) by sub-clause (a) of clause (8) and also rectify some drafting omissions.

Clause 13.—The insertion removes an existing doubt whether filing fees under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, are payable where advantage is taken of the provisions of section 17 of the Insurance Act.

Clause 14.—The addition provides a period of limitation of 3 months for an application to Court against an order of the Superintendent of Insurance.

Clause 15.—The insertion extends the powers of the Superintendent of Insurance to all valuations of insurers.

Clause 16.—The section referred to deals with the publication of summaries of the returns of insurers and provident societies. The latter are dealt with in a separate part of the Act, and the section is accordingly omitted here and is re-introduced in Part V in a clearer form.

Clause 17.—The addition makes it clear that the alterations have also to be authenticated and certified in the same manner as the originals.

Clause 18.—The amendments are designed to release insurers from the necessity of furnishing the detailed particulars necessary to establish that they have complied with section 27 twice in the year provided that they supply quarterly particulars of assets held invested by them under that section but permits the Superintendent of Insurance to call for the detailed particulars twice a year wherever necessary.

Clause 19.—The addition makes it clear that a director is not debarred from taking a loan on his life policy within its surrender value, notwithstanding section 86D of the Indian Companies Act.

Clause 20.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables an auditor or an actuary for an investigation under section 33 to be appointed alternatively or simultaneously or one after the other in any order. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation for an application to Court against the action of the Superintendent of Insurance. The amendment in sub-clause (c) removes drafting lunæ.

Clause 21.—The amendments provide for the recovery of all expenses incurred in taking action under section 33 as if they were land-revenue and gives such expenses priority over all other debts of the insurer.

Clause 22.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) provides that the Central Government shall receive 4 sets of the documents on which a transfer or amalgamation is based. The insertion in sub-clause (b) rectifies a drafting omission.

Clause 23.—The addition is designed to secure that the disposal of the deposits of amalgamating insurers in an amalgamation or of the deposit of a transferor in a transfer shall be made in accordance with the interests of the policy-holders concerned.

Clause 24.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (d) are designed to extend the existing provisions of section 37 to cover the case of transfer of insurance business to a person who is not an insurer. The amendment in sub-clause (c) provides that two sets of the documents on which the amalgamation or transfer is based shall be sent to the Central Government in cases not covered by clause 22. The amendment in sub-clause (e) specifies in greater detail the documents required.

Clause 25.—The amendments remove an ambiguity.

Clause 26.—The omission made by sub-clause (a) removes a doubt as to the position on reassignment to the original insured. The addition in sub-clause (b) removes a practical difficulty arising when a policy is assigned to the insurer in consideration of a loan granted by him within its surrender value.

Clause 27.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendment in sub-clause (b) rectify drafting flaws while the second amendment in sub-clause (a) clarifies the position of a bona fide insurance agent receiving normal commission on a policy on his own life.

Clause 28.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a) and (b) provide for increasing the licence fee to three rupees and for a penalty not exceeding one rupee if renewal is applied for late. The amendments in sub-clause (c) extend the disqualifying offences, provide for the removal of the disqualification after a certain time and correct a drafting error. The addition in sub-clause (d) provides for issue of a duplicate if the original licence is lost, destroyed or mutilated.

Clause 29 rectifies drafting flaws.

Clause 30 rectifies a drafting flaw.

Clause 31.—The amendments in sub-clause (a) provide for further relief to insurers against fraudulent suppression of material facts. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides for adjustment of the terms of a policy when an error in age is discovered and enables age to be proved at any time after issue of a policy.

Clause 32.—The amendment removes the inconvenience resulting from the fact that the provisions of the section are mandatory.

Clause 33.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) makes it clear that a company cannot interfere with the manner prescribed for the election of policy-holder directors. The first insertion in sub-clause (b) enables all policy-holders entitled to vote or stand for election to exercise their rights and prevents any "watering" of the list of voters or candidates, while the second insertion provides for suitable exemptions in certain cases which are found in practice to give rise to practical difficulties.

Clause 34.—The substitution specifies more clearly than at present the circumstances under which dividends and bonuses may be paid and the circumstances under which and the limit within which debentures may be serviced.

Clause 35.—The addition provides for dispensing with notice by an insurer in a case where it is obviously unnecessary.

Clause 36.—The additions provide for equitable winding-up of all insurance business on the dividing principle, when such business becomes unlawful after 1st July, 1942, except in cases where the Superintendent of Insurance sanctions the measures for winding up already taken.

Clause 37.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) adjusts a drafting flaw. The amendments in sub-clause (b) supply an omission.

Clause 38.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) brings the definition of "business on the dividing principle" in respect of provident societies into line with the definition of the same business in respect of insurers. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides in the case of provident societies for equitable winding-up of insurance business on the dividing principle on the same lines as those laid down in the case of insurers by clause 86

Clause 39.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) supplies an omission while the second amendment clarifies the position regarding provident societies established outside British India, and the third amendment provides for a registration fee of 200 rupees for new provident societies. The first amendment in sub-clause (b) supplies two omissions while the second amendment provides for the cancellation of registration without formal notice to the society or an application to the Court in certain necessary cases. Sub-clause (c) makes detailed provision for the consequences of a cancellation of registration, including provision for the revival of registration in some cases.

Clause 40.—The first section inserted by this clause provides for annual renewal of registration of provident societies on the same lines as clause 4 does for insurers. The second section inserted by this clause requires full particulars as to address, directors, persons in charge, etc., to be supplied by provident societies already registered and provides for maintaining a correct record of such particulars.

Clause 41.—The amendment eliminates a lacuna.

Clause 42.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) eliminates a lacuna while the insertion in sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 43.—The amendment makes it clear that a provident society, whether established in British India or outside British India, must have a principal office in British India.

Clause 44.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) is consequential on the amendment in clause 43. The amendment in sub-clause (b) enables the forms of registers to be prescribed in the rules at great length and with sufficient flexibility to suit the needs of different types of provident societies. Sub-clause (c) is consequential.

Clause 45.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) provides for the submission in printed form of certain returns of provident societies while the second amendment gives the societies a needed extension of time for submission of their returns. The insertion and the addition in sub-clause (b) bring the provisions applicable to the returns of provident societies into line with these applicable to the returns of insurers.

Clause 46.—The amendments in sub-clauses (a) and (c) remove ambiguities. The amendment in sub-clause (b) fixes a date before which actuarial reports on schemes in operation on 1st July 1939 must be submitted. The amendment in sub-clause (d) clarifies the position of policy-holders under a prohibited scheme and sub-clause (e) substitutes more apt words.

Clause 47.—Sub-clause (a) removes ambiguities about the investments that must be made by provident societies and also provides that cash held in deposit may be taken into account as if it was invested. The addition in sub-clause (b) is explained under clause 19.

Clause 48.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) adds the necessary reference to the case of a provident society established outside British India. The second amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendments in sub-clauses (b) and (c) bring the provisions applicable to investigations into the affairs of provident societies into line with similar provisions applicable to insurers already explained under clause 20.

Clause 49.—Sub-clause (a) supplies an omission and the amendment in sub-clause (b) is consequential.

Clause 50.—The addition in sub-clause (a) saves the Superintendent of Insurance from unnecessarily incurring expenses out of public revenues in the liquidation of provident societies. Sub-clause (b) removes an ambiguity.

Clause 51 is consequential on clause 52.

Clause 52 provides that the costs of liquidation of a provident society shall have priority over other debts when they are held to be payable out of the assets of the society.

Clause 53.—Sub-clause (a) supplies verbal omissions which have given rise to practical difficulties and sub-clause (b) extends the existing provisions relating to the disposal of deposits held immediately prior to 1st July 1939 to "Mutual" and "Co-operative" insurers also.

Clause 54 saves "mutual" insurers the duty and expense of sending copies of accounts to all their members as a matter of course but gives every member the right to receive a copy of the accounts on application.

Clause 55 supplies some verbal omissions and substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 56.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) rectify verbal defects and sub-clause (c) makes provisions similar to those applicable to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 57 makes the existing provision of section 105 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 58 enables an application to court under section 106 to be made also by the Superintendent of Insurance, and makes the section applicable to provident societies as well as to insurers.

Clause 59 makes the existing provisions of section 107 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 60.—Sub-clause (a) provides for an appeal against a refusal by the Superintendent of Insurance to renew registration of an insurer and sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation of 3 months for appeals under section 110.

Clause 61.—Sub-clause (a) recasts and clarifies sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 113, at the same time extending the existing right of a guaranteed surrender value to holders of whole-life policies also. It is also made clear that the provisions apply to holders of policies issued by provident societies and not merely those issued by insurers. Provision is made for the guaranteed surrender value to be shown on the policy in the prescribed manner. Sub-clause (b) is mainly consequential.

Clause 62.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) removes an obscurity of wording which had caused some practical difficulty. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 63 makes section 116 applicable also to provident societies.

Clause 64.—The new section inserted is consequential on clause 16. It reproduces section 24 in clearer form and provides that the voluminous returns under section 23 need not be published.

Clause 65 extends the provisions of section 117 to provident societies.

Clause 66 enables the Superintendent of Insurance when granting exemption under section 118 to impose conditions or to make suitable modifications of the provisions still left operative.

Clause 67.—The existing section 119 being redundant when read with section 3(2)(f) is repealed and in its place a new provision is inserted providing that the public may inspect or obtain copies of documents filed under section 3(2)(f).

Clause 68 amends the Indian Limitation Act to provide that the period of limitation shall run in the case of a life policy from the date of death of the life insured instead of from the date when proof of such death is given. The policies affected are no longer described as those under which the sum insured is paid immediately after proof of the death.

Clause 69.—Sub-clauses (a) and (c) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 70.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. In sub-clause (c) the first three amendments rectify verbal defects while the last one makes the explanation of the terms "Business within India" and "Business out of India" applicable in the case of all insurers.

• Clause 71.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendments in sub-clauses (b) and (c) remove verbal defects and the second amendment in sub-clause (a) abolishes a requirement which is unnecessary in connection with valuation returns. Sub-clause (d) substitutes a new Form G for the existing Form G in the Fourth Schedule to the Act making it consistent with Form D which is submitted annually with the same information. Sub-clause (c) makes clear how Form J is to be prepared.
